Description: This book should be declared a national treasure! We lead tremendously busy lives, with 1,001 things to do. Even so, every saint and renowned spiritual director through the ages has said the same thing: If we desire to become saints, we must spend time daily in meditation. With this book (which is in its fourth printing!), Father Bartunek has created...

Review: I bought this book several years ago, and somehow it just didnt resonate with me. I am a Third Order Carmelite and had used Carmelite books such as Divine Intimacy as inspiration for meditation for many years. I wanted something new, and The Better Part did not seem contemplative enough for me. I set it aside. This week, after searching on Amazon...
